The Court having considered all matters submitted to it at the Final Approval Hearing and otherwise; and it appearing that notice of the Final Approval Hearing substantially in the forms approved by the Court was provided to the Class as directed, including mailed notice to Registered Holder Damages Class Members identified in the records of the Depository’s transfer agent, and an extensive multi-media notice campaign to Class Members consisting of targeted advertising to certain potential Class Members using Internet Protocol address matching, publications in various magazines, newspapers, and investment e-newsletters, as well as banner ads served over a variety of business, news, and investment websites and across social media platforms; and the Court having considered and determined the fairness and reasonableness of the proposed Plan of Allocation; and

3. Over 211,900 Postcard Notices were mailed to Registered Holder Damages Class Members and millions of additional Class Members were notified of the Settlement and Plan of Allocation through the extensive multi-media notice campaign, and there are no objections to the Plan of Allocation.
4. Approval of Plan of Allocation – The Court hereby finds and concludes that the formula for the calculation of claims as set forth in the Plan of Allocation provides a fair and reasonable basis upon which to allocate the proceeds of the Net Settlement Fund among Class Members, with due consideration having been given to administrative convenience and necessity.

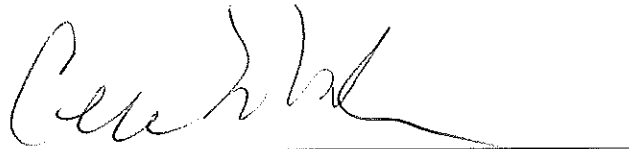

5. The Court hereby finds and concludes that the Plan of Allocation is, in all respects, fair and reasonable to the Class. Accordingly, the Court hereby approves the Plan of Allocation proposed by Plaintiffs.
